Radio Boise Mission and History

Radio Boise is a non-profit community radio station committed to providing a platform for alternative voices and perspectives in Boise and beyond. The station's goal is to make sure we're filling a unique niche in music and local-interest programming that is refreshing, engaging, and helps expand our listeners' viewpoints. Founded as a nonprofit in 2002 and broadcasting over the airwaves since 2011, Radio Boise is powered by hundreds of committed volunteers, programmers, and supporters.

General Manager

The Radio Boise General Manager (GM) oversees all day-to-day operations, strategic planning, financial and administrative activities, including staff management, and volunteer coordination. The GM also collaborates on organizational governance with the Radio Boise Board of Directors (Board). The GM promotes and fosters a culture of collaboration and inclusivity within the organization and our community.

The GM is responsible and accountable to the board for setting and implementing policies consistent with the organization's principles. The GM is also the main representative for the station, and is responsible for communicating the station's mission, principles, and goals to all participants in the Radio Boise community.
